Times They Are A-Changing

"Come gather round people wherever you roam
And admit that the waters around you have grown
And accept it that soon
You'll be drenched to the bone.
If your time to you is worth saving
Then you'd better start swimming
Or you'll sink like a stone
For times they are a-changing."

Bob Dylan

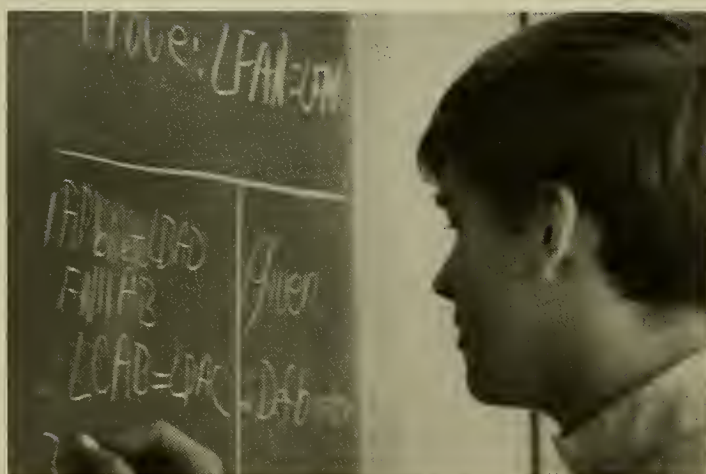

The Face Of All The World Is Changed

Human Progress
Has Come About
Through Change

We Ourselves
Change

Weep Not
That The World Changes

To Know The Change And Feel It

Nothing Is Permanent . . .

. . . Except Change

In Memoriam

"If there's another world,
He lives in bliss;
If there is none,
He made the best of this."

Mr. John Conlon (1908-1968)

He smiled, he joked, he rumbled through our lives and left his presence by the gruffness of his voice which never quite concealed the twinkling humor; a rare individual doubly blessed. He was happy, but more important he knew it. Too soon we will all forget. Another laugh, another joke, another source of joy will fill the lifeless vacuum left behind him. But as we think of him from time to time, as surely we will, far better would it be to smile and joke as he would do, to take a lesson from life to find our own contentment, than to slowly shake our heads in sorrow of his passing.

Dedication

The changing times at Southbridge High School are reflected in the lives of Mrs. Barbara H. Kyrios and Mr. William C. Nickerson. Both have devoted three decades of their lives in assisting our students. For their efforts and devotion, we are greatly indebted to these two fine people. To them we dedicate MILESTONE 1969.

Mrs. Barbara H. Kyrios

Since 1938, Mrs. Barbara H. Kyrios has been teaching young women the art of homemaking. Besides being actively involved with Glee Clubs and Drama Clubs, she was adviser to the Class of 1952. Mrs. Kyrios' service to the school and community will always be remembered by everyone who had the pleasure of knowing her. We wish her well in her retirement.

Mr. William C. Nickerson

For three decades, Mr. William C. Nickerson has devoted his life to the teaching profession. Changing times have not altered his understanding and sympathetic attitudes toward the students of Southbridge High School. Mr. Nickerson has spent long hours counseling students and was the adviser to the Class of 1951. When he retires this year, he plans to fulfill his lifelong ambition by living by the sea. Our best wishes to him in his retirement.

Class Advisers

Mr. Roger Giroux

During our high school years, our lives changed a great deal. On the day of our Freshman Reception we met our class advisers, and during the next four years they aided us in fulfilling all the responsibilities leading up to our Senior Year. As advisers to the Class of '69, Mr. Roger Giroux and Mr. Lucien Manchuk willingly gave their time and effort to establish us as the "Mighty Seniors." We sincerely thank them for their unselfish service throughout these four years.

Time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was . . .
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph,
Preserve your memories,
They're all that's left you.
Paul Simon

Mr. Lucien Manchuk

Superlatives

As time progresses, people change and develop so that various individuals become noted for particular aspects of their personalities. During the last year in high school, Seniors feel that they know each other well enough so that they can select two outstanding people to serve as superlatives according to certain categories. These titles are bestowed in fun but they indicate how the selected individuals are viewed by the other members of their class.

EVENTS

As Juniors, we realized that the times were certainly changing, for now it was our turn to sponsor a prom given in honor of the graduating Senior Class. The willing Juniors who worked energetically during that one hurried week know that preparations for MARDI GRAS were time-consuming, yet entertainment and a feeling of satisfaction were attained at the end. The entire Junior Class was indebted to the Prom Committee and its advisers and especially to Debbie Boniface and Paul Krasnov who were extremely active and enthusiastic while the groundwork was being laid for the festivities.

It has been said that one picture is worth a thousand words. The overwhelming change from a gymnasium to a MARDI GRAS attests to the work involved, but the finished product can only describe itself.

Prom night came and went, and with it went hours of designing, decorating, and directing which were climaxed by viewing the completed creation of MARDI GRAS. Everyone who attended or at least who viewed the gym on prom night will agree that it was a truly beautiful and entertaining event.

The Queen, her Court, and their escorts are: Barbara Howard and Michael Favreau, Cheryl Ciprari and Robert Leduc, Queen Bonnie

Magoon and Robert Morrill, Mary L. Gibson and Frank Rocissano, and Jane Aucoin and Ray White.

Taking part in the grand march are: Gail Paquette and Laurier Carpentier, and Louise Sandman and Roger Hebert.

Marcel Caouette, Louise Avery, Thomas Jeneral, Ruth Trahan, Susan D'Henin, and Michael Bergeron.

Shown enjoying dancing at MARDI GRAS are Iris Terpos, Thomas Jeneral, Louise Avery, Diane Fournier, and Joanne Smarelli.

Lydia Caouette, Paul Bonnette, Deborah Hutchinson, and David Mogavero.

Freshman Reception

One of the first activities facing the Senior Class was the annual Freshman Reception. At first the freshmen were somewhat apprehensive but after introductions to their new teachers and administrators, they felt they were really a part of Southbridge High. The music was provided by the Paper Machine, and seniors enjoyed themselves as much as the freshmen. Since the Class of '72 is the largest class in the history of S.H.S., it indicates the great change taking place in our student population.

Thanksgiving Rally

The thought of the upcoming Bartlett game was for most an uncertain prospect. But the annual rally for the Thanksgiving Day classic changed all that. The rally was one of intense excitement and fervor and most certainly boosted the morale of our football team. Together the cheerleaders, the band, and the majorettes raised the spirits of the entire student body.

Victory Dance

Long hours of creative thinking and planning were finally rewarded when the cheerleaders sponsored their Thanksgiving Victory Dance. Although the Pioneers lost the traditional Bartlett game, there was no lack of gaiety during the celebration. The music was provided by the Apple Corps and everyone present enjoyed themselves.

Assemblies

The assembly program at Southbridge High School was instituted for educational purposes and for providing a change of pace from the normal routine. All of this year's assemblies were interesting and entertaining, especially those performers who used humor to convey their ideas. A concert pianist related jokes while demonstrating various chords on a piano. Humor was also used for the program "This Atomic World", and frequently students were asked to participate in the programs.

In addition to the usual presentation of a Senior Class play, drama students of Southbridge High School performed "The Glass Menagerie" by Tennessee Williams as an all-school play. Directed by Mr. Jeffrey C. Leeds, the excellent performances of Beth Hirons, Carol Bachand, Arthur Arpin and Andrew Simpson demonstrated the abundance of talent at Southbridge High School.

Senior Players Set Stage For "The Crucible"

Debby Asselin, Tom Kosakowski, Ronnie Lesniewski, Chris Clarke and Tom Leduc

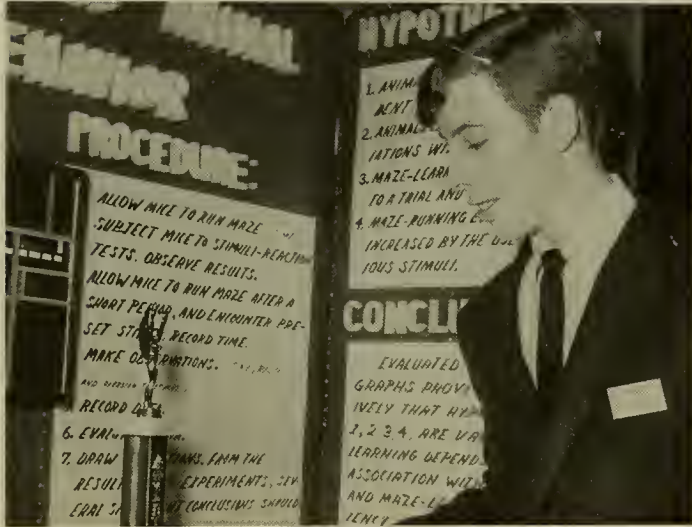

This year members of the Senior Class presented "The Crucible," a two-act drama centering around the Salem witchcraft trials. The cast was made up of twenty students who eagerly rehearsed for three months under the direction of Mr. Dennis McManis. Both the cast's and crew's efforts were enthusiastically received on the performance dates.

Science Fair

The annual Science Fair was held in March with students entering projects in physics, chemistry, biology, and general science. Among those receiving awards were Michael Bergeron, Mark Quevillon, Thomas Kosakowski and Wayne MacDonald, and Kay Xanthakos and Ruth Remijan. Mr. Lillpopp was chairman of the event and Mr. Desroches presented awards.

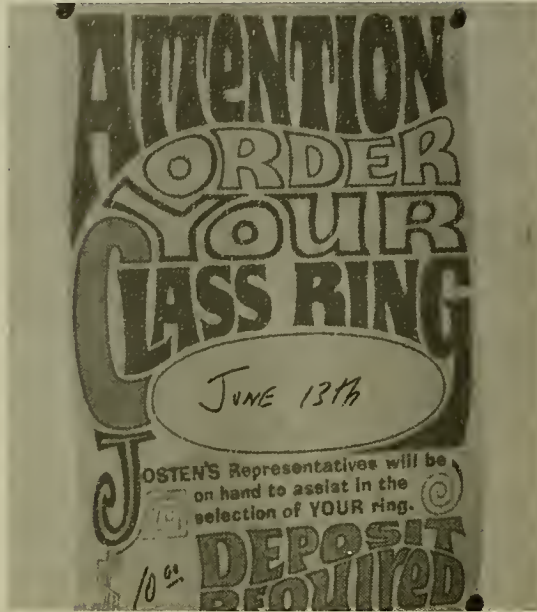

Southbridge High's annual Talent Show was held on Saturday, March 16, 1968 and was well received by the near capacity crowd. The program consisted of vocal solos by Michele Paquin and Carol Bachand, a trampoline act by Martin McDonough, a ballet number by Kay Xanthakos, and Rodney Piette on the guitar.

Other performers were Martha Michon and Sue Poirier in a modern dance, Valerie Favreau and Peter Moore singing folk songs, and the Paper Machine, a rock 'n roll group.

The show was under the supervision of a faculty committee, and the proceeds were used for the Dr. James M. Robertson Memorial Scholarship Fund.

Football . . . A Season Plagued By Injuries

Football has always been the favorite sport at S.H.S., and the 1968 season was no exception. Characterized by a tough grudging defensive secondary and a rugged offensive unit, the Pioneers played nine fine games, winning their first four in succession.

However, the team was plagued by a series of injuries which negated what might have been a better season. Mike Bousquet, offensive back, fractured his collarbone one week before the Northbridge Jamboree in a scrimmage with Oxford, and missed the first five games.

The Pioneer offense suffered another serious setback when Sophomore quarterback Jim Lazo was injured during the Auburn game and was forced to sit out the rest of the season with a fractured leg. In large part due to these adversities and others, the Pioneers finished the season with four wins and five losses.

Southbridge High coaches Marino and Welch ponder a critical game situation.

Pioneer Chain Gang defensive back Paul Livernois (11) tackles Wachusett ball carrier as Mike Power (82) moves in to assist.

Don Barth (84) heads up field as Mark Butler (64) applies a key block.

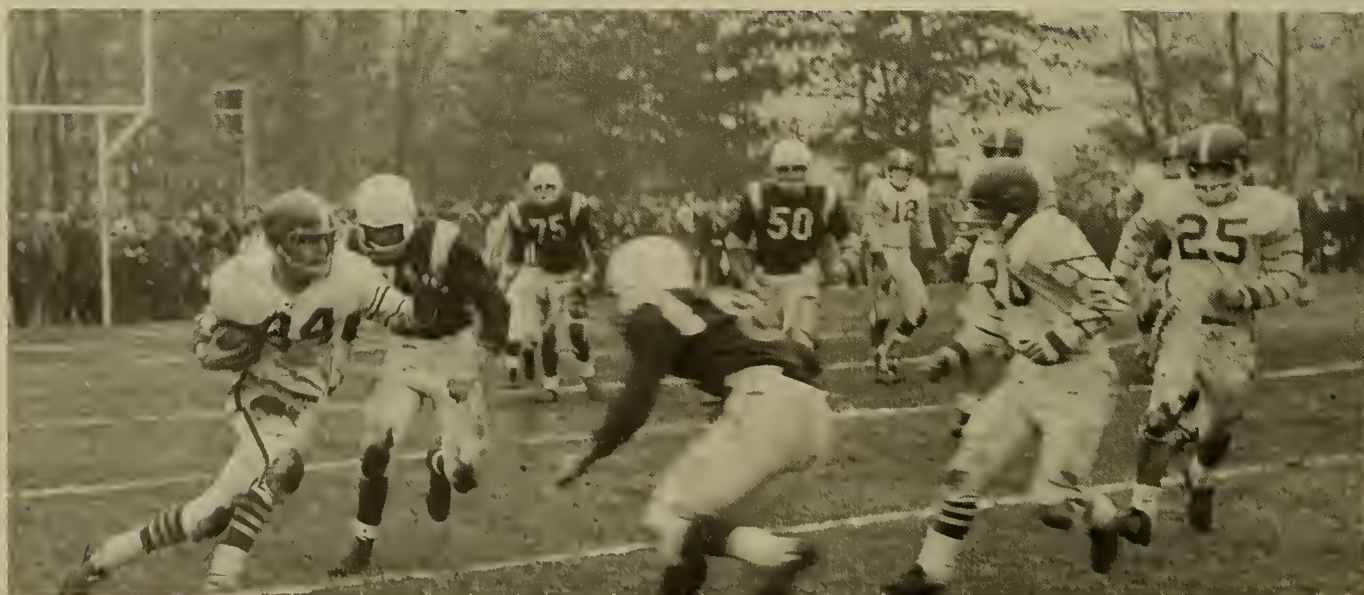

Season Ends On Dismal

Mike Bousquet (12) after pulling rebound off board. Ronnie Lesniewski (50) comes in to help out.

Our basketball team quickly discovered that possessing fine personnel was not enough to bring about a winning team. Cooperation, team spirit and dedication were the necessary ingredients missing in the early going. After defeating arch-rival Bartlett at mid-season, however, the Pioneer hoopsters seem to find themselves. Tri-Captains Peter Hughes, Mike Bousquet and Ronnie Lesniewski led the scoring along with Junior forward Mike Lee. Guards Gary Lee and Peter Hapgood continually demonstrated their play-making ability. The fine season was well-deserved and certainly a long time in coming.

Ronnie Lesniewski struggling for possession as Mike Lee (14) moves in. Looking on are Pete Hughes and Mike Bousquet.

Beginning . . .

Mike Bousquet (12) goes up high for two points.

Sophomore Pete Hapgood scores, and it's two more for the Pioneers.

Tri-Captain Ronnie Lesniewski goes high for rebound against Valley Tech.

Mark Butler, ahead of his defensive man, scores.

Helplessly looking on as Bartlett Indian scores a basket are Mike Bousquet, Pete Hughes and Glenn Davis.

J.V. Team Thrills Fans With Sparkling Season . . .

If J.V. basketball teams are indicative of future varsity teams, then S.H.S. has many good years of basketball ahead of it. Mr. Gosk's J.V.'s outstripped all competition and lost only two games, one to a prep school team. Guards Jackie Boyle, Jeff Theodoss and Larry Druckenbrod proved valuable team ballplayers, while center Mike Szumilas and forwards Kim Carpentier, Marc Costanzi and Dennis Wright led the team in scoring.

Dennis Wright (52) fires his jump shot while Lee Negip and Jimmy Power (foreground) and Mike Costa (10) in background await rebound.

Bill Toye (22) lays one in as Bob Girouard (32) looks on.

Lee Negip drives for the layup.

Mr. Leduc's Freshman team, though playing a limited schedule, showed great promise. Dennis Wright, Jimmy Power, Lee Negip, and Mike Costa were four of the team's outstanding players while others will also undoubtedly help S.H.S. teams in the future.

Jimmy Power (12) goes up for the tap as Mike Costa (10) and Paul Zarzycki (24) await outcome.

Spirit And Enthusiasm Dominate Girls Basketball

Girls Junior Varsity Basketball Team. Front: Kathy Peloquin, Janet O'Brien, Lenore Champeau, Elaine Apostola. Back: Manager David Garceau, Barbara Bicki, Alice Culliton, Coach Teguis.

Fielding both a new coach, Mr. Peter Teguis, and a relatively young and inexperienced team, the girls basketball team didn't fare as well as in past years. Senior guard Kathy O'Brien and Sophomore rover Jackie Coderre were team sparkplugs, and team morale and spirit was the rule during most of their games. The team lost only two Seniors during the year and hopefully S.H.S. can expect a much better performance next year.

And Softball . . .

Girls Softball Team. Front: Iris Terpos, Janet Puccelli, Barbara Osimo, Bonnie Magoon, Debby Bourdelais, Joyce Poulin, Kathy Battista. Team warming-up just before game.

Last spring found the girls softball team doing surprisingly well. Spurred on by the abilities of three Seniors, Iris Terpos, Barbara Osimo, and Janet Puccelli, they garnered a respectable record of ten wins and only three losses. Mr. N. Richard Leduc, coach, was in part responsible for their success.

BORDER BASEBALL CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP

Pioneer Baseballers

Baseball never gained the popularity of football at Southbridge High School, yet during the 1968 season, the Pioneer were avidly followed by the student body and sported some of the most loyal fans around. The Pioneer baseballers didn't let their fans down as they struggled for an undefeated season. The best infield in the Conference, fine pitching in Seniors Dave LaFlamme and Jon Lamarine, and good solid hitting power carved the team to a 12 and 3 record and a share of the Border Baseball Conference Championship.

Hard-hitting shortstop Pete Hughes

Track is a sport which demands a great deal of individual willpower and dedication. This dedication was evident in our track team as they spent long spring afternoons practicing at Dresser St. Field. Topnotch area teams created stiff competition but some fine individual performances in the high jump, javelin, 880 yard relay, quarter-mile and half-mile runs overshadowed a losing record.

Our cross country team, coached by Mr. Leduc, though relatively inexperienced this year, improved over last year's overall performance. Seniors Wayne MacDonald and Bruce Innis and Junior Marc Richard turned in good efforts, and for a team lacking the necessary depth, the Pioneer harriers ran well.

Change is taking place, not only at Southbridge High School, but everywhere. We realize that we must accept more changes in the future and that which seems so permanent now may not seem so in the years to come. By using good judgment, we may change the world for the better and open up a brighter future for all of us.

“And the present now will later be past;
The order is rapidly fading;
And the first one now will later be last,
For the times they are a-changing.”

For their valuable assistance, the yearbook staff is deeply indebted to: The American Yearbook Company, our printers; Mr. Don Lendry, American Yearbook Company representative; Morin Studios, our photographers; Mrs. Mary Anna Tien; Mr. Seaver Rice; Mr. Raymond Lippe; Mr. Earnest Lippe; the administration; faculty; and student body whose cooperation made this book possible.
